

November 9th, 2024 Season End Dinner at Left Fork Grill

Last night's season end dinner was great. Lots of smiling faces and lots of conversation. If you missed the dinner, then you also missed an opportunity to win some fun door prizes and perhaps see your BMCU friends for the last time until the new year.

The official announcement of the 2025 Memorial Day Tour to Steamboat Springs, CO was announced along with our Potluck Dinner and Planning Meeting Date, 08 February 2025. Keep your eye out for the Tour announcements shortly after the first week of December. You'll need to get your reservations made so that you'll have a room when Memorial Day rolls around.

Thanks to the officers of the BMCU for the work they've put in this year to make our Club a fun and successful operation: Kent, Pat, Dennis, Drew, Roger H., Nghia, Jon, and Clayton.

The Left Fork Grill was super in handling our large group, 50+, and the food was really good, also. The servers and cooks worked their butts off to make sure everyone was served quickly and accurately. Thanks to Michele for handling the reservation and the RSVP's. Awesome job everyone.

It has been a fantastic driving season with lots of new members, new routes, and several Impromptu drives. Winterize your LBC or whatever you do to keep it happy over the winter and think about new drives and volunteering to help with the coordination of our events.

Auto Jumble

Howdy! I got a Weber down draft carb that came on my spitfire, I would like to go to a side draft setup like I did on my TR6, if anyone would like to buy my current setup including the manifold or offer a trade with a little extra cash on my end im open to offers! Would like to reuse/refurbish something over purchasing a new one, the engine is a triumph 1979 , 1500 4 cylinder Best, Jacob Brown
