

Memorial Day Tour 2026

Have you ever wondered what this "Touring" stuff is all about? Announcements filling your inbox SEVEN months before the event may have you a bit curious. The simple answer is: Touring with the BMCU is pretty much the most fun you can have with your Little British Car!

In fact, once you've gone on a Tour, you're likely to be hooked! The comradery that is built during a Tour, is like no other. The experience takes driving your LBC with other members, to a completely higher level. It's a great way to get to know the other members in the Club.

What's involved with Touring? You'll drive your car for a longer distance than our regular events. We all stay at the same hotel and we meet each morning to enjoy the breakfast that's included with your reservation. During breakfast, you'll find out where others are going to drive that day and if you want to go with them. If you have a different idea, spread the word so that a couple of cars will be going together.

We have all prepared our vehicles for the longer drive encountered on a Tour. Breakdowns rarely happen, but when they do, the other Tourers, have a huge amount of knowledge. Someone has probably already had the same problem and knows the quick repair. We DO NOT drive long distances! Rarely are we going more than 300 miles. About every hour, we stop, get out, use restrooms, fill gas tanks, check oil and air, and take pictures.

Probably the most fun are the roads that the Tour will travel. We attempt to avoid expressways as much as possible. Our speeds are right around 50-60 mph. These routes have most likely been driven and vetted so they are the kind of roads we like to drive.

Come and join us on our annual Memorial Day Tour for a great time with your LBC and your BMCU friends.

November 12th, 2025 Tibble Fork Reservoir

The third Midweek Madness event was a drive to Tibble Fork Reservoir up American Fork Canyon. This is an incredibly pretty drive that we've had to avoid for a regular event, because of the popularity the canyon has gained and the nearly bumper to bumper traffic. However, having a Midweek Madness event in the middle of the week in November, found the roads nearly empty of any vehicles! It was a very pleasant drive. Check out to the pictures to see the smiling faces of the BMCU members, enjoying their LBCs in great weather. Even if you aren't retired and have to work, consider taking a Person Day and coming along with us for a midweek Madness Drive.

November 8th, 2025 Season end Dinner

The turnout was fantastic! There were a few seats left in the restaurant, but the BMCU had over 50 members enjoying the evening. We all but took over the restaurant and the Left Fork mentioned we may want to look into having the diner close for just our dinner next year. There are some pictures, taken by Roger Hemingway, posted on the Facebook BMCU page. Take a look and you'll see a bunch of happy members chowing down on some great food.

Special Recognition awards were given to Drew Frink, Sue Hermance and Jon Hermance in appreciation of their service and dedication to the British Motor Club of Utah over the years.

Michele did a great job of getting everyone on the dinner list and Rich was the official lot attendant making certain that there was parking available for everyone. Kudos to you both.

Everyone in attendance went home with automotive themed gifts ranging from the inexpensive to Visa gift cards. The drawings were fun since everyone knew their number would be up.

If you missed the Season End Dinner this year, well, you'll have to wait until next year. `

November 3rd, 2025 Sweetaly Gelato

The second Midweek Madness event was a very nice drive along the east side of the Salt Lake Valley. The group ended up at the Sweetaly Gelato shop in Holladay. It was fun to get some of the best gelato in Utah for a mid afternoon snack.
