Early Morning Run

Due to historically hot weather in Utah, the Early Morning Run route was changed to accommodate our temperamental LBCs. Luckily our fearless leader and webmaster, Drew also was quite accommodating with a shorter route through Big Cottonwood Canyon and then breakfast at Penny Ann’s Café. Apparently the BMCU is full of morning people because over 25 members made the drive!

August 22nd, 2026 Trapper Loop Run

WOW!!! If you were with us on the Trapper's Loop Run, yesterday, and it seemed like most of you you were, then you know how LARGE the group was! To the best of our knowledge, there were at least 36 vehicles and 63 people!!! That was FANTASTIC. When we were rolling, we stretched out nearly a mile. Thank goodness for our radio communication. When we arrived at the Mad Moose, Mike was happy to see us and couldn't believe how we seemed to keep pulling into the small parking lot and spilling over into a convenient "over flow" lot.

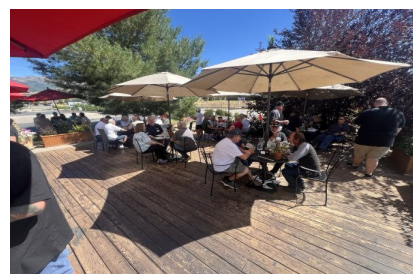

GREAT JOB Clayton and Sharon for keeping a watchful eye on the Rocky Canyon fire and the route roads opening JUST IN TIME!! Thanks for your efforts and planning of your Trapper's Loop Run.

What most of you do not know, is that the route roads around the East Canyon Reservoir were closed because of the Rocky Canyon wildfire. They only opened Wednesday before this event. Clayton and Sharon were keeping there eyes on the fire reports for the last couple of weeks, keeping fingers crossed that the route roads would be open. Here is another thing that you probably don't know. Clayton had a PLAN "B" ready to go if the East Canyon roads didn't open!!! There was no way that he was going to let this event be cancelled or moved. It was a route that took into consideration where members would be coming from and included a lot of the original route. Thank you, Clayton! Excellent job!

The Wasatch Mountain Jaguar Registry folks also joined us for this run. Clayton and Sharon also did a wonderful job keeping our merged groups together with no one getting lost. All in all, it was a really cool Rolling Car Show!
